

“Imagine the Difference”

Natural Quartz surfaces available in the USA for the classic modern enthusiast.

Located next door to the Caesaria National Park in Israel is the CaesarStone production facility. Their catalogue lists, “Kibbutz Sdot Yam, Israel, adjacent to the Roman city of Caesaria”. We were two busloads of pilgrims from Christ the Redeemer Catholic Church in 2009 on the first morning of our trip. I was quite shocked when we passed the CaesarStone sign to find myself walking distance from the global headquarters. I slipped away from the group for 20 minutes, met with Amid and got a quick tour of their showroom. I was introduced to Motivo™ Lace. If there were ever a product that is both classic and modern... “ground breaking new finishes like the patented embossed pattern design”... the tactile appeal is unmistakable. -RAB

PS The sign in the showroom says, “Imagine the Difference”
